People in this county who are so anxious for the success of the Republican cause must remember that they have no good reason to advance why their party should succeed except that it will result in the election of Mr.
Trumbo, of Salt Lake city, as United States senator. Now, most good Re-Trumbo, of Salt Lake city, as United tes senator. Now, most good Reublicans will deny this statement, and will urge other reasons why they think the party ought to win. The reality confronts them, however, ern reality confronts them, however, of the result of Republican victory ill mean Mr. Trumbo and probably
r. Clarkson, of Iowa, for senators, robably most of them do not desire nch a result, but that will be the end the whole business in case Repubnans should win, and if the men of Mr. Clarkson, of Iowa, for senators.
Probably most of them do not desire such a result, but that will be the end of the whole business in case Republicans should win, and if the men of that party will not present the facts to the people. The Herald will do it for them. On the whole, if this is to be a Republican state, these gentlemen would probably make as good senators as many others who would like the job; but it is not going to be that way, for the people who will seen decide the issue are voting this time for principle and not to promote any man's asplirations who wants to be a senator.
Republicans must remember, and this is written for their benefit, that Mr. Republicans must remember, and this is written for their benefit, that Mr. Trumbo has the call if they win, and the success of that party means his triumph.

There was a rousing Democratic meeting at Kanesville last evening, addressed by J. A. Weber and Hon. John Seaman. It was not a tame affair, by any means, and the story that no Democrats are to be found in that neighborhood was disputed by the living presence of as many Democrats as usual. They are all standing firm and will show by the returns on election and the property of the page.

and whether they are harrie to inc-cause of the people.

At Slaterville, Hon. C. C. Richards addressed an enthusiastic Democratic meeting. Slaterville is one of the live precincts of this county, and the Demprecincts of this county, and the Democratic citizens comprise a great portion of the enterprising people of the community. They are not scared by the stories they hear and read about the country going to rack and ruin on account of Democrats being in control of governmental affairs. The reception tendered to Mr. Richards last evening was a good indication that every Democrat will do his duty on election day, and that the vote will be as heavy as this morning and landed the happiest lot of whalers that has arrived here

Hon, David Evans and Joseph Hall made things lively in a spolitical way at Hooper last night. The people out that way like to hear good, sound political decrine and they take naturally to Democracy.

The men who have heretofore been Democrats have not changed and cannot understand why they should charge their political views. Hooper will be all right on election day and the returns will show that the cause of Democracy has not lost anything in that part of the country.

At Roy last evening Judge J. H. Macmillan and Thomas Maloney spoke on the issues of the day from a Democratic standpoint. They were listened to attentively and have no reason to believe that they were talking to men all of whom were opposed to them. The Democratis in that vicinity are as firm in the faith as ever and will aiways do their duty, as honest men should.

The mother made for Rhodes, and Rhodes made for a tree. He made good time, but had to throw away his gun. As he shinned up the tree Mr. Bear arrived at the base just in time to save one leg of his panta. She wanted more of him, but he went up that tree so fact she could not get in another grab.

For four hours the old bear walted around the tree for Mr. Rhodes to come down, and finally thinking, perhaps, that she had best look after her young one, she departed.

Bhodes came down at once and made good time for home, where he related his one-legged pants as corroborative evidence. He said it was a large grizzly hear, and that she was very mad.
